

INSURANCE

We provide high-level, sophisticated advice to corporate and individual policyholders, crafting cost-effective and creative risk management solutions and pursuing fast and robust insurance recoveries for significant claims. We have decades of experience negotiating with and, if necessary, litigating against insurers. Whether your goal is to assess and manage your company's risk and exposure, whether your insurance carrier disputes its obligations, or whether you are facing daunting litigation to protect your coverage rights, we will craft a strategy and resolution that meets your specific needs. And we will fight for you in the smartest and most creative way possible. We have been doing it for years, and nobody does it better.
