

BENJAMIN R. DAVIDSON

Benjamin is an associate at the firm whose practice focuses on complex litigation. Representative matters include:

- Representing two individuals in a False Claims Act suit brought against an insurance company relating to its claims-handing procedures following Hurricane Katrina
- Representing a successor trust established pursuant to Section 524(g) of the Bankruptcy Code in insurance coverage litigation
- Representing several individuals with disabilities and two disability rights organizations in a suit against a large hotel chain for Americans with Disabilities Act violations
- Representing a Sri Lankan exporting company in an insurance dispute arising out of a product liability action

ASSOCIATE

DAVIDSONB@GOTOFIRM.COM

PHONE: (202) 772-2261

EDUCATION

- 2006 — J.D., Georgetown University Law Center, magna cum laude
- 2003 — B.A., Duke University, with high honors

BAR AND COURT ADMISSIONS

- District of Columbia
- Virginia

PRACTICE AREAS

- Complex Litigation
- Insurance

Benjamin also maintains an active pro bono practice. His pro bono matters include representing a homeowner in a successful appeal that nearly quadrupled a state grant award offered for damage sustained in Hurricane Katrina, and representing a minor seeking insurance coverage for damages incurred from sexual abuse suffered in a youth housing facility.

Prior to joining Gilbert LLP, Benjamin was an associate in the antitrust practice group at Arnold and Porter, LLP from 2006-2007, where he represented a credit card company in an antitrust litigation relating to interchange rates.

AWARDS & HONORS

- Order of the Coif

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- Georgetown Journal of International Law: Associate Administrative Editor
- American Constitution Society: Board Member