Gilbert Heintz & Randolph LLP (GHR) and two of its partners have once again been ranked among the top in the nation in the area of policy holder insurance law by the 2006 Chambers USA: America's Guide to Leading Lawyers for Business. Chambers USA rankings are based solely on interviews conducted by Chambers publishers with thousands of practitioners and clients nationwide.

Chambers noted that the firm is "synonymous with the innovative and creative approach it takes to its work. "Brilliant and bright," Scott Gilbert was ranked in the first tier of policy holder insurance law practitioners. He was singled out by the whole market for being "able to understand even the most complex negotiations at a glance." Chambers researchers found that Gilbert is considered to be the master in asbestos and bankruptcy work. Clients and practitioners alike remarked that Gilbert can administer "the appropriate injection of mediation skills to get the best results for his client" and has developed a national reputation for obtaining asbestos recoveries for his clients.

As in previous editions of Chambers, John Heintz was recognized for his expertise in multiparty insurance litigation. He is known for his aptitude for "handling complex and high-profile cases with aplomb." Heintz has worked on significant pieces of litigation for more than 20 years and has built a reputation in the marketplace for a "prolific and distinguished" output of work.
