(Washington, DC) June 15, 2007—Gilbert Randolph LLP and Scott Gilbert, firm Chairman, have once again been ranked among the top practitioners in the nation in the area of policy holder insurance law by the 2007 Chambers USA: America's Guide to Leading Lawyers for Business. Chambers USA rankings are based solely on interviews conducted by Chambers publishers with thousands of practitioners and clients nationwide.

Chambers quoted market sources as agreeing that Gilbert Randolph is "a first-class recovery firm that is still one of the best in the country at what it does." Clients characterized the firm's lawyers as "incredibly thorough in their research, they know the issues and most importantly, they get things done."

Scott Gilbert was ranked in the top tier of policyholder insurance lawyers in Washington, DC. Clients and colleagues commented that Gilbert has "one of the best reputations in the country" for insurance coverage litigation and negotiation. With more than 20 years of experience in alternative dispute resolution, Gilbert is renowned as "a consummate negotiator who thinks outside the box." According to commentators, "he's an incredibly smart lawyer who is clearly one of the most brilliant, creative players in the field."
